University Roundtable on Transformative Regional Engagement

September 27-28, 2009
University of Georgia • Athens, Georgia

Mark your calendar for the next University Roundtable on Transformative Regional Engagement (TRE), co-sponsored by Penn State and the Association of Public and Land-Grant Universities' (formerly NASULGC) Council on Engagement and Outreach. This year's TRE will be hosted by the University of Georgia in Athens, Georgia, at the Georgia Center for Continuing Education Conference Center and Hotel.

The session topics will focus on public policy, research, and agenda topics outlined in the Appendix of the 2008 TRE proceedings, including Regional Innovation Centers, Road Maps to Critical Partnerships, and Modeling Successful Transformations. To access the 2008 TRE proceedings, visit www.oewd.psu.edu/TRE.

The roundtable will begin on Sunday, September 27, at 1:30 p.m. and conclude on Monday, September 28, at noon. More details regarding the program will be provided later this spring.

Registration will open on May 1, 2009. You can register at that time by visiting www.outreachscholarship.org.
